1.7 The use of the BRSM logo is allowed only for use in the secondary packaging of products that are mentioned in the application scope of the system certificate in way that is not misleading with product (including service) or process certification.

Note: Due to the new ISO 22003-1 requirements, starting in 2025, the use of any BRSM and AB/IAF logos or marks on products or any statement referring ISO 22000 is prohibited.

1.8 Any change in the shape or nature of logos is prohibited.

1.9 Both logos must be colored or non-colored (black and white).

1.10 If you use logos in color, because each of the colors has a specific definition and is a symbol, any change in the colors is not allowed and is prohibited.

1.11 If it is necessary to use an unconventional size (more than 10% of the advertisement area), it is necessary to coordinate with the BRSM office.

1.12 By using the logo you need to:

- 1.12.1 Conform to the requirements of BRSM when making reference to its certification status in communication media such as the internet, brochures or advertising, or other documents;
- 1.12.2 Do not make or permit any misleading statement regarding its certification;
- 1.12.3 Do not use or permit the use of a CoR or any part thereof in a misleading manner;
- 1.12.4 Upon withdrawal of its certification, discontinue the use of all advertising matter that contains a reference to certification, as directed by BRSM; and amend all advertising matter when the scope of certification has been reduced;
- 1.12.5 DO not use its certification in such a manner that would bring BRSM and/or certification system into disrepute and lose public trust.
